FLORIDA GATORS®

The UF Communications Office compiled the rosters from all 21 varsity athletics teams and came up with some fun "Gator Bytes" about the student-athletes, who together comprise one of the nation's top athletics programs.

Team Florida 2011-12 ... The Coaches

The 2011-12 Florida Gator head coaching staff has captured 10 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS and 67 Conference titles, while being honored as the Conference Coach of the Year 49 times.

Meet the Gator Head Coaches who team to form one of the country's most successful collegiate athletics programs.

Buddy Alexander
Men's Golf

Becky Burleigh
Soccer

Most Tenured Gator Coach: Buddy Alexander, Men's Golf, enters his 25th season with the Gators, hired Jan. 22, 1988

Newest Gator Coach: Will Muschamp, Football, enters his first season with the Gators, hired Dec. 11, 2010.

Tallest Coach (male): Roland Thornqvist, Women's Tennis, 6-foot-6

Tallest Coach (female): Becky Burleigh, Soccer, 5-foot-9

Oldest: Gregg Troy, Men's & Women's Swimming & Diving, born Dec. 19, 1950

Youngest: Jan Dowling, Women's Golf, born Sept. 26, 1980

Most Offspring: Billy Donovan, Men's Basketball, and his wife Christine have four children (William, Hasbrouck, Bryan and Connor)

Player/Coach

Men's golf coach Buddy Alexander, the 1986 U.S. Amateur Champion, is the only active golf head coach in the nation to have captured the U.S. Amateur Title.

Men's basketball head coach Billy Donovan led Providence to the Final Four as a senior and is one of only two people to ever play in a Final Four, serve as an assistant in a Final Four and as a head coach in a Final Four.

Rhonda Faehn is the only current Division I coach who represented her country as an athlete in World Gymnastics and Olympic Gymnastics competition.

While an assistant coach at the University of Maryland, Amanda O'Leary was the second-leading scorer on the 1993 U.S. World Cup team that repeated as the gold-medal winner at the International Federation of Women's Lacrosse Association (IFWLA) Championship. As a player, O'Leary was the MVP of the 1988 NCAA Lacrosse Championships, was named to the NCAA Women's Lacrosse 25th Anniversary Team and was inducted in 2005 into the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

While playing at Virginia, Kevin O'Sullivan was the first-team All-ACC catcher in 1991, edging out Jason Varitek of Georgia Tech, who went on to become the captain of the 2004 and 2007 World Series champion Boston Red Sox.

Women's golf coach Jan Dowling was a member of the inaugural Kent State women's golf team and was named the Senior Female Athlete of the Year at Kent State in 2002. She won the 2000 Canadian Amateur Championships and was a member of the 2002 Canadian World Amateur Team.

The Butler Did It

Amanda Butler was a four-year starting guard for the Gator Basketball Team, leading Florida to the 1993 and 1994 NCAA Tournaments, the first two NCAA appearances in program history. When Florida earned the No. 23 spot in the Dec. 8, 2008 Associated Press ranking, Butler became only the sixth woman in the history of NCAA Division I Basketball to play for and coach the SAME team that earned a top-25 ranking.

Gooooolden Girl

Becky Burleigh is the only female coach to lead her team to the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer title (1998).

Coming Home

Will Muschamp spent nine years of his childhood in Gainesville, growing up just blocks from Ben Hill Griffin Stadium on 22nd Street.

The Lone Ranger

Mary Wise is the only female head coach in NCAA volleyball history to coach in more than one Final Four.

Familiar Faces

Will Muschamp is certainly no stranger to the SEC or some of the opposing coaches he will face in his first year in Gainesville. Muschamp has coached at Auburn and LSU and was on the same coaching staff in Baton Rouge as Nick Saban (Alabama head coach), Derek Dooley (Tennessee head coach) and Jimbo Fisher (FSU head coach). Muschamp and Fisher share beach property in the Panhandle of Florida from their days at LSU.

Hugs & Kisses

Gymnastics coach Rhonda Faehn was an elite gymnast and trained under world-famous coach Bela Karolyi.

More Hugs & Kisses

Gymnastics coach Rhonda Faehn and men's tennis assistant coach Jeremy Bayon married in June of 2006. You can still call her Rhonda Faehn. They welcomed their first child, Noah Émile Bayon, on Jan. 8, 2008 and another son, Isaiah Freedom Bayon on Nov. 24, 2010.

Holloway's Honorees

Track and field coach Mike Holloway has coached an All-American in every single sprint and hurdle event since joining the Gator staff as an assistant coach in 1995.

U.S. Royalty

Men's tennis coach Andy Jackson is a descendent of former United States President and War of 1812 hero Andrew Jackson, along with Confederate General Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson.

Kevin O'Sullivan
Baseball

Roland Thornqvist
Women's Tennis

Go Gators! (Swedish translation: Go Gators!)

Women's Tennis head coach Roland Thornqvist, a multilingual native of Stockholm, Sweden, speaks to his two young daughters only in his native language of Swedish.

Team USA

Men's and women's head swimming coach Gregg Troy was selected by USA Swimming and the U.S. Olympic Committee as the head coach for the 2012 U.S. Olympic Men's Swim Team. Troy joins former Gator track and field coach Jimmy Carnes (1980) and former Gator gymnastics coach Ernestine Weaver (1980) as the only three coaches in school history to be the head coach of a U.S. Olympic National Team.

Gator Pride

Gator softball head coach Tim Walton carried his softball coaching over to the USSSA Florida Pride of the National Pro Fastpitch league throughout the past two summers. Walton led the Pride to the 2010 NPF Championship, the team's first-ever, while the 2011 Pride squad finished as the NPF runner-up.

Tim Walton
Softball

Champs!

Two current Gator head coaches won a national championship as an athlete: UF softball coach Tim Walton was the game-winning baseball pitcher in Oklahoma's 1994 NCAA College World Series title; and UF lacrosse coach Amanda O'Leary led the 1988 Temple Owls to a 19-0 record and the NCAA Championship. She also was named the 1988 NCAA Tournament MVP.

Hall of Famer

Amanda O'Leary was inducted in the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame in 2005. She also was named to the NCAA Women's Lacrosse 25th Anniversary Team in the fall of 2006. She also has been inducted into the Temple Athletic Hall of Fame and the Southeastern Pennsylvania Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

Baseball Boomers

Under head coach Kevin O'Sullivan, the Gators set a school record with 11 players chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft in June 2011. In his four-year tenure, Florida has now had 30 players drafted.

Alumni Reunion

Amanda Butler, BS '95, MS '97 (women's basketball) and Mike Holloway, '00 (track & field) both graduated from UF. Butler earned a varsity letter as Gator student-athlete in the sport she now coaches.

Now That's Coaching!

Volleyball coach Mary Wise's winning percentage at Florida entering the 2011 season (.902) is the highest of any NCAA Division I coach with at least 10 years of experience in volleyball, men's and women's basketball, football and baseball history.

Mary Wise
Volleyball

Head men's basketball coach Billy Donovan joined legendary Kentucky coach Adolph Rupp as the only other coach in SEC history to guide his program to multiple national titles, doing so in 2006 and 2007.

Behind every great head coach is a talented staff. Meet some of those 2011-12 Gator ASSISTANT COACHES.

Man-U

Assistant Soccer Coach Alan Kirkup played for the "world's most valuable soccer team, Manchester United Football Club,"¹ from 1972-76.

¹ - from A Goal-Oriented Move in Condé Nast Portfolio.com May 2008 issue

Romanian Roots

Gator assistant gymnastics coaches, Adrian Burde and Robert Ladanyi, were teammates on the Romanian Junior National Men's Gymnastics team.

Harvard Educated

Football's running backs coach Brian White graduated from Harvard with a bachelor's degree in history in 1986.

Offering Head Coach Advice (current assistant coaches who were head coaches)

- Second-year assistant coach Steve Jungbluth (men's and women's swimming) served as the head coach at Colgate from 2003-2010;
- Alan Kirkup (soccer) headed the women's soccer programs at Arkansas (1999-2003), Maryland (1996-99) and Southern Methodist (1986-96) prior to coming to Gainesville for the 2006 campaign;
- John Pelphey (men's basketball) served as head coach for nine seasons, including five at South Alabama (2002-07) and four at Arkansas (2007-11), before returning to Gainesville where he was a Gator assistant from 1996-2002.
- Charlie Weis (football) was the head coach at Notre Dame from 2005-09 and joined the Gator coaching staff in 2011
- Dave Boos (volleyball) was the head coach at Ball State for three seasons before joining the Gator staff in the spring of 2010.
- Associate swimming and diving head coach Martyn Wilby was the Barbados Olympic Team head coach in 2000, where he coached Leah Martindale-Stancil in her second Olympic appearance.
- Before coming to Gainesville as an assistant softball coach in 2007, Gator alum, Jenny Gladding was the head coach at Palm Beach Atlantic University.
- Men's golf assistant John Handrigan was the head men's and women's golf coach at Queens University of Charlotte (2007-09) and the head men's coach at Coker College (2003-07) in South Carolina.

Gator Alum

- Women's tennis associate head coach Dave Balogh is a native of Gainesville, where he earned his undergraduate degree from UF, playing tennis from 1993-96.
- First-year men's basketball assistant Matt McCall earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from UF while working in various capacities with the team, working his way from student manager to head manager to director of basketball operations from 2002-08, experiencing two national championships with the Gators.
- Aubrey Hill (football), a four-year letterman at UF from 1991-94, returned to the Gators prior to the 2011 season to coach the wide receivers. This is Hill's third stint in Gainesville, as he previously served as a graduate assistant football coach under Steve Spurrier from 1996-98.
- Softball assistant coach Jenny Gladding played for the Gators in 2003 and 2004. The former pitcher still holds career records for opponent batting average and strikeouts per seven innings. She finished her career only 35 strikeouts shy of the school record.

- Swimming assistant coach Leah Martindale-Stancil is in her third year as a Gator coach. Stancil was a member of the 2002 Florida Gators SEC Championship team, is the Barbados national record holder, both long course and short course, in the 50 and 100 free events, which she set at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta. Stancil was a 12-time NCAA All-American during her four-year tenure at UF. Stancil graduated from UF with a BS in 2002 and her Master's degree in 2006.
- Associate swimming and diving head coach Anthony Nesty swam at UF from 1989-92, earning his B.A. in 1994.
- Women's basketball assistant coach Murriel Page was inducted into UF's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009, after enjoying an All-American career from 1994-98. She was the inaugural pick by the WNBA's Washington Mystics franchise in 1998 and enjoyed an 11-year WNBA career.

Alan Kirkup: from Man-U to UF

Tour Savvy

Women's golf assistant coach Emily Bastel competed on both the LPGA Tour ('05,'06,'08) and the Duramed Futures Tour ('04,'06,'09). Bastel was named the Futures Tour Player of the Year and was the leading money winner in 2007.

Strong Bloodlines

Men's basketball assistant Matt McCall is the son of three-time football letterwinner Wayne McCall (1965-67), who is now a prominent Ocala attorney.

Now on Equal Footing

Craig Bell played for fellow Gator assistant baseball coach Brad Weitzel at both Palm Beach Community College (1986-87) and the University of North Florida (1988-89). They are both in their fifth year on Kevin O'Sullivan's coaching staff.

Bringing a Winning Tradition

Assistant softball coach Jennifer Rocha is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma and played for the Sooners from 1996 to 1998. During her time as both a player and a graduate assistant coach, she was a part of six consecutive NCAA Regional appearances, three Big 12 Conference titles, two Big 12 Tournament titles, two WCWS appearances and one national championship. Since at UF, she has helped the Gators to six straight NCAA Regional appearances, two SEC regular-season titles, two SEC Tournament titles, four consecutive WCWS appearances and two trips to the WCWS Championship Series, most recently in 2011.

Leaving Behind a Mark

Assistant lacrosse coach Caitlyn McFadden won every major award possible in her senior season as a midfielder for the 2010 National Champion Maryland Terrapins. She was named the Tewaaron Award Winner and Honda Sports Award Winner (and was a finalist for both awards in 2009), the ACC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP (also won both conference awards in 2009), IWLCA National Midfielder of the Year, and the Suzanne Tyler Award winner, which is awarded to the University of Maryland Female Athlete of the Year. She was also a two-time IWLCA First-Team All-American in her final two years as a Terp and IWLCA Second-Team All-American in her sophomore year.

In the Record Books

Assistant men's tennis coach Jeremy Bayon is the all-time leader at Mississippi State in dual match victories, amassing a 120-55 record from 1997-2000 at MSU, where he played under current UF head coach Andy Jackson.

Olympic Golden Gator

Associate swimming and diving head coach Anthony Nesty, who swam at UF from 1989-92, won the 1988 Olympic Gold Medal in the 100-meter fly. He served as Suriname's Head Swimming Coach at the 2008 Olympic Games and was honored by his native country which selected him to carry the flag during the opening ceremonies.

More Golden Gators

All three coaches on the lacrosse staff are World Cup gold medalists. Assistant Coach Caitlyn McFadden was on the 2009 World Cup team along with fellow Assistant Coach Erica LaGrow, capturing gold. Head coach Amanda O'Leary won two gold medals as a player, in 1989 and 1993.

And the Oscar Goes to...

Football's running backs coach Brian White's sister, GERALYN, won an Oscar for Best Documentary in 2005 as the producer of "Born into Brothels."

'X' Marks the Spot

Volleyball assistant coach Sally Polhamus was the first volleyball player ever to be inducted in Xavier's Athletic Hall of Fame, becoming a member in 2005; still holds the all-time career record for kills with 1,779 and is fourth in career digs with 1,338.

Blue-collar Workers

Tight ends coach Derek Lewis got a job as a New Orleans city bus driver after his NFL career fizzled. He worked for a couple of years as a bus driver before getting back into football as an intern in the weight room with the Texas Longhorns. He then worked as a graduate assistant at Texas before spending four years as the tight ends coach at Minnesota. He joined the Gators prior to the 2011 season.

Offensive line coach Frank Verducci previously held a job as the coach of a semi-pro football team in Helsinki, Finland. In one game, his offensive line was getting hammered by the opponent's nose guard. The owner of Verducci's team demanded that Verducci suit up and play, adding that the opponent's coach was also their nose guard. So Verducci did suit up, after negotiating a new contract at halftime that provided medical coverage and an extra meal each day. He ended up playing the rest of the year.

Cutting His Teeth

Defensive backs coach Travaris Robinson began his coaching career at Auburn, first as a student assistant then as a graduate assistant, while Will Muschamp served as Auburn's defensive coordinator.

Offensive coordinator/Quarterbacks coach Charlie Weis has won four Super Bowl rings

Impressive Credentials

Defensive line coach Bryant Young played 14 seasons in the NFL for the San Francisco 49ers and was named to the Pro Bowl four times (1996, 1999, 2001, 2002)

Offensive coordinator/Quarterbacks coach Charlie Weis has won four Super Bowl rings, three as the offensive coordinator for the New England Patriots and one as the running backs coach for the New York Giants.

six weeks, however, she was back on the court at practice on Oct. 21st and played in the first 11 games.

Choosing the Gators Over the Professional Ranks

- Seven players on the Gator baseball squad that were chosen in the 2009 Major League Baseball Draft decided to attend Florida instead. This group included Brian Johnson, Michael Heller, Mike Zunino, Bryson Smith, Austin Maddox, Hudson Randall and Steven Rodriguez. These players have been instrumental in Florida bringing home back-to-back SEC crowns in 2010 and 2011 and making consecutive trips to Omaha for the College World Series for the first time in school history.

Fast Learner

- Azania Stewart (Women's Basketball), a native of England, began playing basketball when she was 15 years old when she was spotted while competing in netball, a 7-on-7 game similar to basketball, but the players don't dribble and the hoop does not have a backboard

HERE Now!

- A 2010 Florida Gators commitment from Proctor Academy in Andover, N.H., Stephen Alli (football) decided to graduate high school early and skip his senior year to attend Gator fall practices a year early. He chose Florida over Boston College, UConn and Harvard and is originally from Canada.

- Sophomore Scottie Wilbekin (M-Basketball) chose to graduate high school early and skip his senior year. Wilbekin played his entire freshman season as a 17-year-old, not turning 18 until April 5, 2011.

Let the Dream Begin

- It was always Holly Pole's dream to play volleyball at the University of Florida, growing up in nearby Ocala; she couldn't wait and enrolled early after being injured during her senior year of HS in order to be a step ahead in the fall.

Sophomore Mackenzie Caquatto earned her fourth consecutive spot on the U.S. Senior National Team with her fourth-place all-around finish at the Visa Championships in August of 2011. She is the only gymnast on the 11-member team who will compete as a collegiate in 2012.
